NEHEMIAH

1. Nehemiah calls out the chaos makers.

When I heard their outcry and these charges, I was very angry.
I pondered them in my mind
and then accused the nobles
and officials.

“In a culture where the extreme has become the norm, people are increasingly seduced into believing that intensity equals being alive.

When that happens, the mind becomes wired for drama and the soul is starved of meaningful purpose.”

1. Nehemiah calls out the chaos makers.

The anger of men does not accomplish the righteousness of God.

James 1:20

1. Nehemiah calls out the chaos makers.

2. Nehemiah challenges people with the truth.

I told them, “You are charging your own people interest!” So I called together a large meeting to deal with them and said: “As far as possible, we have bought back our fellow Jews who were sold to the Gentiles. Now you are selling your own people, only for them to be sold back to us!” They kept quiet, because they could find nothing to say. So I continued, “What you are doing is not right. Shouldn’t you walk in the fear of our God to avoid the reproach of our Gentile enemies?”

3. Nehemiah lives out the change he expects of others.

I and my brothers and my men
are also lending the people money and grain. But let us stop charging interest! Give back to them immediately their fields, vineyards, olive groves and houses, and also the interest
you are charging them –

grain, new wine, and olive oil.”
“We will give it back,” they said.
“And we will not demand anything from them. We will do
as you say.”

A close-up photograph of the rear quarter panel of a blue car. The car's body is a vibrant blue. In the upper left corner, a portion of a red taillight is visible. A white decal with a double-line outline is applied to the blue surface. The decal contains the text "DON'T FOLLOW ME" on the top line and "I'M LOST TOO" on the bottom line, both in a bold, sans-serif font. The car's surface shows some reflections and a slight shadow from the taillight.
